The City of Norman recognizes the necessity of social service programs in the community of Norman. The City of Norman through the Social and Voluntary Services Commission shares responsibility in the delivery of said social services. Therefore, the City of Norman will entertain proposals for funding for services from non-profit 501C(3) agencies providing service to the citizens of Norman. Programs of these agencies should prevent, alleviate or contribute to the solution of social service problems related to health, mental health, and public safety of the citizens of Norman.

Contact Carol Coles with the City of Norman at 366-5404 or by email at carol.coles@normanok.gov for information regarding applications for funding. The deadline to submit a completed application is September 8, 2010.
